What is Hate Crime

Hate crime is any incident which you or any other person thinks is motivated by prejudice or hate. It is the targeting of individuals, groups and communities because of who they are. It targets people because of elements which go to the core of their identities.

Incidents of hate crime can relate to:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender
- Race or ethnicity
- Religion or belief
- Sexual orientation

Hate crime can take many forms including:

- Physical violence
- Threats of violence
- Offensive graffiti or other written material
- Abusive or insulting words or behaviour

Family Mosaic believes everyone has the right to be safe from abuse and fear. If you are a victim of Hate crime, do not suffer in silence, please report any incidents so that we can take action.

Who can I contact in an emergency?

It is important that you let people know if you are concerned for your safety

- You should phone the police in an emergency, especially if you have been assaulted or threatened with violence
- You can also contact Family Mosaic during office hours
- If you have an emergency repair you can contact the Family Mosaic Emergency Repair Service
- There may be other local support groups you can contact in an emergency

- Your family, friends and neighbours may be able to help and advise you in emergency situations.

What to do if you are a victim of Hate crime

- Tell us as much as possible about what has been happening by contacting our Customer Care Line on 0300 123 3456
- Think about the help on offer and then tell us what you have decided will be best for you and your family
- Tell us about any further incidents and keep a record of them. We can supply diary sheets to help you do this
- Keep us updated of any further incidents
- Provide us with a written statement or be willing to go to court if you want us to take legal action.

What will Family Mosaic do?

We treat all reports seriously, sympathetically and in confidence.

- We will listen to what you would like us to do
- We will visit you at home at a time that suits you or you can come to our office and we will make sure that you are seen in private
- We aim to see you within 24 working hours
- We will explain how we can help you and take details of what has happened
- We will discuss taking action against the people who are harassing you
- In all cases we will investigate what has happened and decide with you what action to take
- Refer to you other support agencies as appropriate

- We will keep you informed at all stages of our investigation about what we are doing and any decisions that have been made.

Emergency repairs

- You may need emergency repairs carried out because damage has occurred due to violence. This includes, boarding up windows, removing offensive graffiti and securing broken doors. Emergency repairs will be completed within 24 hours of being reported.
